Information from FamilySearch FGS.

Dinton is a village, civil parish, and a former manor 8 miles west of Salisbury; the hamlet of Baverstock is contained within the parish in the southwest of the county. The parish church was the Church of Saint Mary the Virgin and, for Baverstock, there was the Church of Saint Editha of Wilton (a daughter of EDGAR the Peaceful, King of England 959 – 975).

Babton is a hamlet north of Dinton; the manor of Babton was formerly in the civil parish of Fisherton Delamere which straddled the River Wylie. The part of the parish south of the river became a part of the civil parish of Stockton in the 1930s. The Church of Saint John the Baptist in Stockton was the most convenient church for Babton residents. The manor of Fisherton Delamere, Dinton, and Teffont Magna formed a detached part of the Hundred of Warminster, Westbury and Whorwellsdown.¹

Other than WILLIAM'S mother ELIZABETH HORNE hailing from Budton, Wiltshire, nothing else is known on the PYLE family. Budton does not exist, but Burton, Wiltshire is in the northwest part of the county and is served by the Church of Saint Mary the Virgin.

For the BENDER family, MARY JANE may have had a brother THOMAS born in Alton Barnes, a village in the parish of Alton a few miles north of Salisbury, Wiltshire.
